The New York Herald says J. P. Morgan has refused to contribute a dollar to the Republican campaign fund of New York. He is mad at Odell.

In view of the much talk of the handsome and superbly dressed women who frequent the horse shows, some one has suggested that the feminies ought to give the equines a show.

A U. S. judge in New York has decided that a Porto Rican is not a citizen of this country. Before the annexation the Porto Rican knew what he was, but it would puzzle him to tell that now.

Secretary Shaw said in his Baltimore speech a few days ago that "the power to consume is the secret of our prosperity." There is no secret about it, for this is a truism as to this country and all countries.

The city of New York consumed last year about 15,000,000 tons of coal—8,000,000 tons of anthracite and 7,000,000 tons of bituminous. A raise of a couple dollars a ton means something for the coal fellows.

That bullet-proof vest, the invention of a Chicago priest, which it is claimed will be proof against anything but a steel bullet, may be all right, but they are rather high at present for general use as they cost $50 a piece.

A U. S. Judge in New York, a few days ago, decided that Porto Ricans are not American citizens. They are, however, qualifying themselves. They had a lively election fracas a few days ago and some men were shot.

It is said that an Austrian surgeon will get $75,000 for setting the hip joints of one of the Armour children which was born with the hip joints out of place. That same operation is to be performed on the child of a laboring man in Chicago for nothing.

We are indebted to Messrs. Latham, Alexander & Co., Bankers and Cotton Commission Merchants, 16 and 18 Wall street, New York, for a copy (a very handsome publication) of the Cotton Movement and Fluctuations, 1897—1902, a very comprehensive, complete, and valuable book for those who handle or are interested in cotton, either as growers, importers or dealers. It is a reliable authority.

COMMANDER METTS RESIGNS.

Upon His Elevation to Brigadier Generalship, He is Succeeded by Col. W. J Woodward—Camp Meeting.

At an important special meeting last night of Cape Fear Camp No. 254, U. C. V., called in place of the regular meeting next Monday night, Commander James I. Metts verbally tendered his resignation and First Vice Commander, Col. W. J. Woodward, according to the provisions of Article 5 of the Constitution of the Camp, was elevated to the position in his stead, by virtue of his office, until the next meeting.

The meeting last night was called to order in the W. L. I. Armory at 8 o'clock by Commander Metts and there were a large number of members in attendance. After the reading and approval of the minutes of the preceding meeting the Treasurer's report was submitted, showing a large number of members in arrears for dues to the Camp.

The Adjutant read a communication from Gen. Dabney H. Maury Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, of Philadelphia, inviting the Camp to attend the unveiling of a monument to Confederate soldiers at Richmond Oct. 25th. The Adjutant was instructed to acknowledge the invitation with thanks.

General Orders No. 20 by Gen. Julian S. Carr, announcing the resignation of Brigadier General Francis M. Parker and the appointment of Capt. James I. Metts, of Wilmington, to succeed him, in command of the Third Division, were read.

Commander Metts suggested that the by-laws of the Camp be amended along the line of other Camps of the Federation and on motion a committee, consisting of Comrades Dr. James Carmichael, Dr. Calvin S. Blackwell and Thos. D. Meares, was appointed to act upon the suggestion and report at next meeting.

At this stage of the proceedings Commander Metts, who has been promoted, verbally tendered his resignation and feelingly spoke of his three years' service in that capacity and extended his thanks for the many courtesies shown him by his comrades.

Col. W. L. DeRosset spoke in regret of the resignation of General Parker, but expressed pleasure at the appointment of Capt. Metts to succeed him. Dr. Carmichael, chaplain of the Camp, then offered the following which was adopted unanimously with enthusiasm:

"WHEREAS, our Commander, Capt. James I. Metts, has been made Brigadier General in the North Carolina Division, U. C. V., and has offered his resignation as the head of this Camp, therefore, be it,

"Resolved, That this Camp hears with just pride of the promotion of Capt. Metts and tenders him its sincere congratulations on the same and desires to put on record its deep sense of his earnest, unselfish and most efficient services in connection with this organization."

Upon Capt. Metts' retirement, Col. W. J. Woodward as First Vice Commander, succeeds him, as stated.

DELIGHTFUL CHURCH RECEPTION.

Ladies of St. Andrew's Congregation Entertained Friends Last Night.

A delightful church reception was given last night from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock in the lecture room of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church by the ladies of the congregation. It was largely attended; especially by the newer members of the congregation, and all were most hospitably and charmingly entertained. The room was tastefully decorated for the event, and following a programme of songs and recitations the entertainment became of an informal nature, and light refreshments were served.

The set programme included recitations by Miss Florence Pearsall and music by many others. The sickness of one participant in the exercises and death in the family of another necessitated a curtailment of the programme to some extent, but it was nevertheless very much enjoyed.

LOCAL DOTS.

— Deputy Sheriff Cox yesterday arrested and lodged in jail Isaac Pollock, a colored offender, for whom a capias was issued at the last criminal term of the Superior Court.

— The Frank Daniels Opera Company went to Charleston yesterday morning on a chartered Pullman, an extra day coach and two baggage cars attached to the regular 6 o'clock train. Wilmington was the only North Carolina point visited.

— Scarcity of material is said to be causing a let-up in the building of coaches in the Coast Line shops here. However, the force has all it can do in repairing and overhauling old coaches, baggage, mail cars, etc., that are continually coming in.

Sad Death at Ivanhoe.

News was received in the city last night of the death yesterday morning at the family home at Ivanhoe, N. C., of Mrs. Haywood Corbett, a most estimable young woman, who was a daughter of Dr. William B. Murphy, of Tomahawk. Mrs. Corbett had been suffering some time with typhoid fever and Dr. W. J. Love, of this city, went up yesterday morning to assist in her treatment, but arrived too late. She leaves a devoted husband and a little daughter, who have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

DAY'S MARKET NEWS.

Spirits Turpentine, the Wonder Just Now of the Naval Stores World.

TOBACCO COMMITTEE MET.

Decided at Once Upon Organization of Company to Build Warehouses, Stemmeries, Prize Houses, Etc Local Shipping News.

The spirits turpentine market is attracting no end of attention on the local Exchange for its great underlying strength, which has, during the past few days, carried the price up at an amazingly rapid rate. Yesterday the closing was firm at 53½ cents, which is probably the record for spirits at this season of the year. Late in the calendar year, when receipts are light and bulling the market is attended by fewer difficulties, dealers say the price of the article has been carried a little above its present level, but it has now probably broken all records in price for this period since the war. The current understanding is that the present production of spirits will be much less than last year, hence the larger demand in anticipation of a shortage. The receipts at Wilmington have, however, held up remarkably well, and the week ended yesterday showed an increase over last year in the ratio of 498 to 436 casks, while the gain for the crop year is about 500 casks. Rosin shows a big gain in receipts for the week, but a falling off of about 4,000 barrels during the crop year. There is also a slight falling off in tar, owing to the concentration of labor in the cross-tie industry, but in crude there is a slight increase. Crude turpentine for dip yesterday was quoted at $3 per barrel.

The event of the day on the Chamber of Commerce Exchange yesterday outside the range of markets and quotations was the organization meeting at noon of the special committee of nine to which was referred the matter of establishing a tobacco market in this city. Every member of the committee except D. McEachern and W. A. Rourk, were present as follows: Geo. O. Gaylord, W. E. Worth, B. F. Hall, L. B. Rogers, S. P. McNair, W. B. Cooper and M. W. Jacobi. The situation was again thoroughly canvassed and immediate action determined upon. A plan of organization was drawn up roughly and it was decided to call for subscriptions to a capital stock of $30,000. Each member of the committee took stock and divided themselves into sub-committee to look after further succsriptions as follows: M. W. Jacobi, L. B. Rogers and S. P. McNair, south of Market street; W. E. Worth, B. F. Hall, and D. McEachern, between Market and Chesnut; Geo. O. Gaylord, W. B. Cooper and W. A. Raurk, north of Chesnut street. The committee has under consideration a thoroughly desirable location for the warehouses, stemmeries, prize houses, stables, etc., and will secure options on other sites as soon as possible.

A special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held to-day, noon, to give expression to the regret upon the part of the businesss community at the contemplated departure of Capt. Lucas in charge of the Corps of U. S. Engineers here. A full attendance is desired. There will also be a meeting of the Executive Committee for the transaction of important business.

Cotton receipts for the week ended yesterday were 19,041 bales, against 25,372 bales same week last year. Crop year receipts to date are 140,199 bales, against 73,492 bales to a corresponding date in 1901. Receipts yesterday were 2,053 bales; same day last year, 3,693.

Capts. F. B. Rice and Jno. T. Borden, U. S. Steamboat Inspectors, were here yesterday and made an inspection of the tug F. and F., recently purchased by Messrs. Flynn & Co., from Capt. Walter Taft.

The schooner Elvira J. French cleared yesterday for Boston, with a cargo of 17,550 cross-ties, consigned by the Hall Tie and Lumber Co.

Sailed 16th: British steamer Candleshoe, New York, to Wilmington. Arrived out, 16th: British steamer Vauxhall Bridge, Bremen.

Marriage and Reception.

At the home of the bride's parents, on Middle Sound, Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Etta M. Southerland, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Southerland, was happily united in marriage to Mr. D. T. Turley, a popular young man of this city. The ceremony was witnessed by many friends of the bride and groom and a delightful wedding supper was served to the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Turley will make their home at No. 902 North Fifth street, where an elaborate reception was given last night in their honor. It was attended by many friends and was most enjoyable.

At Brooklyn Baptist Church.

Brooklyn Baptist church is now in the midst of a series of sermons by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Vipperman, the title of which is, "The Captivity of Zion." Mr. Vipperman earnestly hopes that all will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear this subject discussed. Following this service will be a series of four sermons in the following order: (1) "The Doctrine of the Resurrection;" (2) "The General Judgment;" (3) "Heaven;" (4) "Hell." All are earnestly requested to be present at these services.

SUPERIOR COURT YESTERDAY.

Two Weeks' Term Adjourned After Transacting Routine Business Incident to Motion Docket—Wood Trouble.

The New Hanover Superior Court for the trial of civil suits, after having been in session for two weeks, adjourned at 12:30 o'clock yesterday and Judge Henry R. Bryan, who presided during the term, left in the afternoon for his home at Newbern.

Very little was accomplished during the time the court was in session. Five days of the first week were taken up in a hearing of the Penny damage suit, which resulted in a mistrial, and two days of the present week were devoted to the Hullen damage suit; the remainder to clearing the docket of unimportant matters, which for the most part, have been on the calendar for a long time.

Yesterday a greater portion of the closing session was taken up in hearing argument on a rather unimportant matter on the motion docket in which Mrs. Agnes Thorns, of Asheboro, N. C., sued for the recovery of about 200 cords of wood, cut by Samuel M. Jones from lands in Brunswick county over which there is a controversy. Messrs Meares, & Ruark and Herbert McClammy, Esq., appeared for the plaintiff and Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy for the defendant. Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy made a motion to dismiss upon the ground that no copy of the affidavit, notice and undertaking had been served at the time of service of summons, nor until 30 days thereafter. Counsel for the plaintiff moved for judgment for want of an answer. This brought on legal complications that required no end of argument, but at length Judge Bryan dismissed the case and the motion of plaintiff was refused. The plaintiff thereupon appealed and the bond was fixed at $25. Forty days were allowed each party to file statement of case on appeal and counter statement.

Routine matters were disposed of as follows:

W. T. Mercer vs. Mrs. L. M. Cooksey, judgment.

Ida Cowan vs. Samuel Blossom et al., motion to dismiss on account of no bond having been filed; continued, to be heard on Wednesday of next term.

N. Jacobi vs. Gerritt Walker et al., judgment.

Wilmington Underwriters' Insurance Company vs. Frank H. Siedman, sheriff, judgment of Supreme Court filed, affirming decision of lower court and plaintiffs taxed with cost.

The Worth Company vs. The Fidelity and Deposit Co., of Maryland, judgment for plaintiff for $263.50 and interest from Jan. 1st, 1900.

Sophia Blossom et. al. vs. W. B. McKoy et al., order for sale.

City of Wilmington vs. Iredell Meares, motion for appointment of a referee; motion continued.

COLORED MAN WAS DROWNED.

Treacherous Cape Fear Claimed Another Victim Yesterday Morning.

James Durham, colored, 24 years of age, was drowned yesterday morning about 11:30 o'clock in Hall & Pearsall's dock, where he was employed by Mr. Hans A. Kure, local manager for the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., in "hooking-up" poles from the rafts in the water to the wharf. His body was recovered about three hours later by a raftsman from the country, who used a gig. Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, viewed the remains and gave an order for their burial. No inquest was deemed necessary.

Durham lived on Meadow, between Ninth and Tenth streets. He was drowned in between only seven and eight feet of water. He leaves a number of relatives, including a wife, to whom he was married two months ago.

S. P. COWAN LIVERY COMPANY.

Mr. W. D. McMillan, Jr., Purchases the Interest of the Principal Stockholder.

In the advertising columns of to-day's STAR Mr. W. D. McMillan, Jr., gives notice that he has purchased the entire interest and good will of Mr. S. P. Cowan in the S. P. Cowan Livery Company, and will conduct the business under the same firm name, etc., as before. He respectfully solicits a continuation of the generous patronage heretofore given the company, and says no pains will be spared to keep the service up to its present high standard.

Mr. Cowan, who disposes of his interest to Mr. McMillan, has as yet made no announcement of his plans for the future.

Heating System for Coaches.

A steam heating system for coaches detached from the engines under the passenger shed at the Front street station of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city, is being installed. The steam is conveyed to the shed by means of a 2-inch pipe, underground, from a stationary engine in the shops, and thence to the coaches by means of a hose pipe. The engines attached to the coaches usually supply the steam, but oft times the engine is detained in the round house until just before leaving time and therefore passengers heretofore have had a cold reception upon boarding the cars. Now this is obviated. The pipe also supplies steam to private coaches, which frequently remain under the shed all night.

— Unless you register you cannot vote in the November election. Remember, this is a new deal throughout.

I.O.O.F. CELEBRATION

Tenth Anniversary of Hanover Lodge Appropriately Observed Last Night.

SOME FINE ADDRESSES.

Speakers Included Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, Dr. A. D. McClure, Mr. W. W. Yopp and Others—Delightful Refreshments Served by Ladies.

The celebration last night of the tenth anniversary of Hanover Lodge No. 145, I. O. O. F., in its splendid new hall, elaborately decorated for the occasion, over the Murchison National Bank building, was an auspicious event in every particular and augurs still brighter things in the future for this band of enthusiastic lodgemen.

The celebration took place upon the conclusion of the regular lodge exercises and was opened and closed by the singing with much feeling of the opening and closing odes prescribed in the ritual of the order. Mr. N. F. Parker, chairman of the committee of arrangements and Noble Grand of the lodge, presided, and there were enthusiastic addresses by Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, who was Grand Master of North Carolina upon the insitution of Hanover Lodge, Dr. A. D. McClure, another distinguished member of the order, and Mr. W. W. Yopp, who is also active and enthusiastic in the cause.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the reading of a history of the lodge since its inception by Mr. S. G. Hall, the capable secretary. The lodge was instituted July 30th, 1892, by Grand Master Jno. D. Bellamy with 68 members. As it was apart from the other lodges so far as a meeting hall was concerned, an entirely new outfit of paraphernalia was purchased at a cost of $600 and was at that time the finest in the State. In all there have been 285 initiations into the lodge and it has sustained a loss of 99, leaving at present 186 members and making Hanover, although the youngest, next to the largest in membership in the city. During the ten years of its life the lodge has sustained a loss of 24 members by withdrawal; 70 by suspension for non-payment of dues, one for cause, three by expulsion, 10 have died and two have renounced the order, making 110 in all. Nine members have been restored and there have been two accessions by card. Dues have been collected for assessments, degrees and other sources to the amount of $8,465.32 and the disbursements have been $8,205.47, leaving a balance of $259.85. Donations for relief are enumerated as follows: Sick benefits, $1,673.49; nurses, $221; general relief, $345.88; funeral benefits, for members $300; for members' wives, $250. Total, $2,790.37.

Following Mr. Hall's excellent presentation of the interesting statistics there were impromptu remarks by Messrs. S. H. Fishblate, N. Jacobi, J. M. McGowan and others.

The celebration closed with delightful refreshments served to all by the ladies of Letitia Lodge No. 3, Daughters of Rebekah. The refreshments consisted of ice cream, cake, fruits and other delicacies, served in most approved style.

BIG TRAINED ANIMAL SHOW.

It Was Contracted for Yesterday and Will Be Here for the Carnival—Notes.

Mr. W. S. Layton, proprietor of the Layton Carnival Co., arrived in the city yesterday in connection with the bringing of his mammoth attractions here for the Pythian Carnival, two weeks hence. He also came to close a contract with the railway people for the transportation of a big animal show to Wilmington, which was exhibited this week in connection with the Richmond, Va., Horse Show, and which contemplated going into Winter quarters in the Virginia city. Mr. Layton closed the contract for the transportation and will bring the big animal show here in all its completeness. It will take 14 cars to transport the menagerie and en route the sides of the cars will be utilized with posters and streamers advertising the big week here. The show also includes a midway and several other attractions, which will make the Carnival here, Mr. Layton says, the biggest thing of its kind ever given South of the Mason and Dixon line. The seating capacity of the animal show alone is 3,000.

A letter from Mr. A. S. Holden, who is on the road in South Carolina for the Carnival, says he is meeting with tremendous success. He sent a big box full of bright yellow leaf tobacco from Mullins, S. C. for the tobacco booth.

Work was begun yesterday on the welcome arch for the Carnival at Front and Chesnut streets. It will be a magnificent affair.

Will Inspect Government Work.

Through the kindness of Capt. Lucas, the steamer Mary Lilly, of the U. S Engineers' Department, has been placed at the disposal to-day of Hon. A. C. Lattimer, Senator-elect from South Carolina, and Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, of this city, who will visit the army post at Fort Caswell and the new government light house on Bald Head. Mr. Lattimer and family are spending some time as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Croft, on Wrightsville Sound, and Mr. Croft will accompany the party on the trip. The steamer leaves this morning at 9 o'clock.

SCHOOL FOR TRAINED NURSES

Institution Established and Session Begun at James Walker Memorial Hospital. Course of Lectures Arranged.

Not a long while ago it was noted in these columns that at no distant day a school, regularly equipped, for trained nurses would be established at the James Walker Memorial Hospital in this city. The STAR now takes pleasure in announcing that such an institution is already in operation at the Hospital and is rapidly forging its way to success in every particular. A course of lectures by eminent local physicians has been arranged and regularly scheduled.

For the Junior Class Dr. Joseph Akerman, superintendent of the Hospital, has consented to deliver and has already commenced a series of lectures on Anatomy and Physiology. His subjects have been appropriately subdivided so as to make one lecture each Monday at 8 P. M. until Feb. 25th. On Monday evening and for three Monday evenings thereafter, beginning March 4th, he will lecture on Hygiene. During the term he will also give practical demonstrations to both the Junior and Senior classes in Urinalysis.

On Wednesdays at 8 P. M., from Nov. 5th to December 31st, the services of Dr. Edward Jenner Wood have been secured for a series of lectures on Materia Medica. He has already delivered one lecture to the Senior class on Bacteriology.

Dr. A. H. Harriss last night began the first of the series of three lectures to the Senior class on Gynaecology and for three Friday evenings beginning Nov. 7th, Dr. L. H. Love has been secured to deliver lectures on Obstetrics.

Miss M. C. Little in connection with the other lectures is giving practical instruction in Dietetics.

For each Friday evening from Nov. 28th to January 16th, Drs. F. H. Russell and Thos. S. Burbank have been secured to lecture on Surgery, while each Friday from Jan. 23rd to Feb. 27th in the coming year Drs. W. D. McMillan and W. J. H. Bellamy will lecture on Medicine. Dr. Russell on March 6th, will deliver a lecture to the Senior class on the Nursing of children.

Classes on practical nursing and quiz classes on the lecture are held each week by the Superintendant of Nurses.

A CANDY MANUFACTORY.

Carolina Company is Arranging to Begin a New and Important Industry.

A decidedly new and important little enterprise established in Wilmington to which no reference has been made in the newspapers, is a candy manufactory on an extensive scale, to be opened in a few days by the Carolina Candy Company.

Mr. Jesse Ives, of Florence, S. C., is the moving spirit in the new industry and his company has leased for a term the last end of the second floor of the building occupied by M. F. Croom & Co., at northeast corner of Water and Princess streets. The apartments are now being placed in first-class condition by carpenters and painters and the steps leading to same are being substantially repaired.

The company will make a first-class line of goods and will cater to not only the local wholesale trade but to the trade in all this territory. Competent men will be in charge and there is no reason why the enterprise should not supply the "long felt want that has long been unsupplied."

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

— Miss Nannie Cromartie, of White Oak, N. C., is visiting in the city.

— Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Skelding returned home yesterday morning from a delightful trip to Washington, D. C.

— Miss Fearey, who spent the Summer abroad with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacRae, returned to the city yesterday and will re-open the Norton School next Monday.

— Mrs. L. Vernon Carroll left last evening for Augusta, Ga., to attend the wedding of Miss Effie Hopkins, and for an extended visit in Georgia and Jacksonville, Fla.

— Fayettville Observer 17th: "A telegram from Wilmington to-day announces the critical illness there of Miss Lena Atkinson, daughter of our former townswoman, Mrs. Emma Atkinson, who now resides at Greensboro."

MORE OF PRITCHARD'S FRAUD EXPOSED.

Yesterday we gave an extract from the speech of Senator Simmon's Monday night, showing how groundless are the claims that this country is indebted for the prosperity it has had since 1897 to the Dingley tariff, as aserted by Senator Pritchard, who also asserts that the Cleveland administration and the Wilson tariff were responsible for the industrial depression and the financial disasters between 1893 and 1897. In his speech Senator Simmons took up this charge and thus showed how little foundation there was for it:

The Republicans are not more fortunate in their argument that adversity came in with Cleveland and the Wilson bill, and was therefore due to Democratic legislation and administration, than they are in their prosperity argument. It is true, we had during the middle of Cleveland's administration business depression and financial stringency, but the argument that this condition was caused by Democratic legislation and policies does not take into account the fact that at this very time there was a like condition of trade depression and money stringency prevailing in every commercial nation in the world. Before it had begun here it had begun in Europe by the failure of the great banking establishment of Baring Bros., and the financial collapse in Australia. The business depression here at that time was no greater than elsewhere. Both conditions, prosperity and adversity, were world-wide, such as in all history have followed each other with remarkable periodicity. It is a law well uuderstood by students of political economy that prosperity leads to overtrading and overproduction. This leads ultimately to an excess of supply. Excess of supply leads to falling prices. Falling prices to loss of confidence and business stagnation. This condition continues until demand again exceeds supply, and confidence is restored and prosperity returns.

The business depression which existed during the middle of Mr. Cleveland's administration did not begin with his administration. It began under President Harrison, long before Cleveland was elected or the Wilson tariff bill passed. During the year 1891 there began a scramble among the nations of the earth for gold. The circulating medium here and everywhere was rapidly contracted. During that year this country lost sixty-eight millions of its gold supply. By the beginning of the year 1892 there was a general condition of financial stringency and business depression. The election of Mr. Cleveland was due chiefly to the unsatisfactory business condition, and hard times which existed at the time of the election in November, 1892.

It was hard times we had during the latter part of Harrison's administration which brought the Populist party into being. That party was organized in this State in the Spring of 1892, while Harrison was yet President, and in the election of that year it polled in this State forty-seven thousand votes. From one end of this State to the other during that memorable campaign they sang one long doleful song of woe, of scarce money, of hard times, of business stagnation, of the low price of cotton, corn and wheat, of ruin and bankruptcy. And yet Senator Pritchard says that Harrison's administration closed in a blaze of prosperity. The truth is that business depression was universal when Cleveland was inducted into office on the 4th day of March, 1893. Nobody then attributed this condition to the Wilson tariff law nor to a fear of change in the tariff because everybody knew it had begun under the McKinley tariff and Harrison. The Republican party of that day, so far as they attempted to attribute this condition to local causes or legislation at all, charged that it was due to the silver purchase clause of the Sherman act a law which had been introduced in Congress by Senator Sherman, when was then leader of the Republican party, in 1900 and passed by Congress when that party controlled both branches of that body and the presidency. Not only the Republican party, but the whole commercial and financial interests of the country declared that this Republican enactment was the cause of all the evils from which the country was then suffering and demanded its repeal. The year after the repeal of this Republican enactment, the Wilson Gorman tariff act was passed and, before Mr. Cleveland's term expired, the country had again entered upon an era of prosperity which has happily continued up to the present time.

In his speech here, and in other speeches also, Senator Pritchard said that Cleveland had so encroached upon the gold reserve that he found it necessary to borrow money to make good the gold removed. But the gold reserve had been reduced under Secretary Foster, and the receipts of the government were so small under the McKinley tariff that there was not money enough to meet the current expenses and obligations of the government, and it was found necessary to borrow money to meet the prospective demands. If Harrison had been re-elected he would have had to borrow money, just as Cleveland did, and probably more of it, for his administration would have been more extravagant than Cleveland's was. In fact one of the faults that the Republicans found with Cleveland, and one of the things that contributed to his defeat when he ran the second time, was the fact that he set his face against extravagance and tried to stop some of the pension plundering. This is not so long ago as to have become what Senator Pritchard calls "ancient history."

Senator Simmons continues the illustration by citing the conditions in our own State before Cleveland came into power, before we had any Wilson tariff and when we were enjoying the benefits of Republican rule and the blessings of the McKinley tariff, which was the work of that "ideal protectionist," Mr. McKinley. We know the appeals that were made to be farmers then and the protests that were made against the financial conditions of that time and we know, too, that then the foundation was laid for the Populist party which drew away so many voters from the Democratic party and from the Republican party too, but more from the Democratic party than from the Republican, because there were more to draw from, and because men who had formerly affiliated with the Democratic party led in the revolt. They drew from the Democratic party heavily because many Democrats believed they were honest and sincere when they were arraigning both of the "old parties" and charging both with responsibility for the unsatisfactory conditions and the hard times which then prevailed. They drew heavily enough upon it to give the combine between Jeter Claimant Pritchard and Marion Butler control of the State, and send Jeter and Marion to the U. S. Senate, from which Marion has been relegated and to which Jeter wants to go back, and to accomplish which he is now conducting his deceptive, unscrupulous campaign.

If he had some one like Senator Simmons with him to call him down he would be less cheeky in his claims and less reckless in his charges. He would be compelled to stick to the record and the truth. Then he wouldn't have any speech to make and his occupation as a spellbinder and Dingley tariff champion would be gone forever.

ANOTHER FAKE EXPOSED.

Senator Pritchard explains his vote in 1885 against granting pensions to dependent Confederate soldiers by saying that his objection to the bill was because it included too many as dependents who were not dependents, and gave pensions to people who possessed over $500 worth of property and had that much listed for taxation. He argued here and elsewhere that property listed at $500 was worth three or four times that much, because the custom is to give in property for taxation at far less than its actual value, and therefore the person who was listed for $500 might be the owner of two or three thousand dollars' worth of property and not dependent upon a pension at all. That is his excuse for voting against the pension bill in 1885. In his speech at Pittsboro he repeated this excuse, which is thus punctured by the Chatham Record:

"Senator Prithard asserted in his speech at this place that he voted against the pension bill in the Legislature of 1885 because it gave a pension to men who had $500 worth of property listed for taxation. In making this assertion the Senator was guilty of a mistake, to put it mildly. Whether this mistake (!) was made intentionally or through ignorance, we know not.

"The truth is that bill expressly forbade a pension being paid to any veteran or widow who had $500 worth of property listed for taxation. If any person doubts this we refer him to the bill itself, which is chapter 214 of the Public Laws of 1885. The very first section of that act has the following proviso at its end, to-wit: 'Provided, the said person shall own less than five hundred dollars' worth of property listed for taxation.' And such a proviso is still in the present pension law.

"So, the only excuse given by Senator Pritchard for voting against giving a pension to disabled Confederate veterans is not founded on facts, and is worse than no excuse!

His assertion that he did afterwards vote to pension Confederate soldiers has been shown to be equally groundless by the Raleigh News and Observer which went to the record and found that the pension bill which he says he voted for was passed by the Legislature of 1889, when he was not a member, and that there was no pension bill passed in 1891 when he was again a member. We quote the News and Observer on this point:

With reference to his claim of voting with Alliancemen for pensions in 1891, the fact is that the Legislature in 1891 did not pass any bill increasing pensions to ex-Confederate soldiers. The Legislature of 1889 did pass a general pension bill, largely increasing the amount of money appropriated for pensions, but Senator Pritchard was not a member of the Legislature of 1889. The Legislature of 1891, of which Senator Pritchard was a member, did not increase the pensions given to Confederate soldiers a cent. Outside of three or four bills to pension individual soldiers, the only pension legislation passed by that body were two laws amending the pension law of 1889. One of these amendatory laws simply struck out the word "indigent" from the law of 1889, and the other simply created a County Advisory Board of Pensions, to be composed of ex-Confederate soldiers. The first of these acts is Chapter 413, and the second is Chapter 334, of the Laws of 1891, both amendatory of Chapter 198, Laws of 1889

Perhaps this is some of the "ancient history" that the Senator has got mixed on. But he is doing the best he can with the load he has to carry.

THE HIGH TARIFF HURTS

In his speeches Senator Pritchard declaims on the great benefit the cotton growers and manufacturers derive from the Dingley tariff, when as a matter of fact neither is benefited, but both injured thereby. The Raleigh News and Observer has gathered information from experts in the milling industry, as to the number of mills in the State, spindles, looms, cost, tariff duty, etc., which it presents as follows: There are in the State:

232 cotton mills.
36,931 looms.
1,681,604 spindles.
Average cost $20 per spindle.
$33,632,080 total cost.
$25,224,060 total machinery cost.
40 per cent. tariff duty is $10,089,624.

From this it appears that in consequence of the tariff on milling machinery it costs nearly twice as much to equip our mills as it would if our mill operators were free to perchase their machinery in the cheapest market. In commenting upon this the News and Observer pertinently remarks:

For the same spindle that the New England manufacturer sells in Europe at $1.25 he charges the North Carolina cotton manufacturer $1.75. With the amount that has been paid to the New England manufacturers of machinery for tariff tax alone, the cotton mill men in North Carolina could have built seventy-five additional mills with nine thousand additional looms and five hundred thousand additional spindles, and furnish employment to many thousand additional people.

Mr. Pritchard makes much ado over expanding our cotton trade in the far East, and insists that we must never release our grip on the Philippines, whatever the cost of holding our grip may be, because holding them will help us in making wider markets for our cotton goods on that side of the earth. But there the Southern cotton manufacturer has to compete with the manufacturers of other countries who already have a strong foothold in these Eastern markets, whose mill-equipments cost them but a little over half as much as they cost our manufacturers. Isn't this a handicapping of our manufacturers which would make competition with their European rivals in those markets utterly impossible if it were not for the advantages they have in cheaper raw material, &c.? This talk about the Dingley tariff helping the Southern cotton growing or manufacturing industry is sheer nonsense or brazen audacity.

It is now said that Senator Quay had that duty of 67 cents a ton on anthracite coal sneaked into the Dingley tariff bill, so he could do some dickering with it.

CURRENT COMMENT

— Senator Foraker is not roaring in his usual fashion this season. The people are holding him down to brass tacks and cold facts and that always gives his eloquence his disease.—Atlanta Cnnstitution, Dem.

— Perhaps the most remarkable thing in connection with the coal strike is the discovery by some of the distinguished Republican statesmen that there are such things as State's rights.—Washington Post Ind.

— As we understand the proposal of the mine operators to arbitrate, it carries with it an eventual recognition of the Mine Workers' Union. After all the questions in dispute shall have been disposed of by the commission, the operators will then have to make a contract with the union.—Richmond Times, Dem.

— It is likely that there will be a real prince in the next Congress as a member of the House. He is Prince Cupid of Hawaii, the nephew of ex-Queen Liliuokalani, and in politics he is a Republican. The ex-Queen is alleged to be electioneering for him in a quiet sort of way. She is a shrewd woman, and may see in this matter of giving her support to the Republican party a means by which she may secure payment for the crown lands and a handsome pension besides.—Savannah News, Dem.

— Winston Sentinel: The first killing frost in this section was visible Wednesday morning. From reports received it is not thought that it did any serious damage as the farmers have finished cutting and curing tobacco.

— Kinston News: Mr. John H. Thompson, of Onslow county, lost a tenant house by fire Tuesday night. Some boys were playing in the house and it is thought they accidentally set fire to it. Loss about $350, with no insurance.

— Mount Airy News: The tobacco crop is a large one, and if prices will hold up, as we truly hope they will, until every leaf is marketed, the farmers will soon be in good shape. Take it all together, we believe the 1st of January, 1903, will find the farmers of Surry county freer from debt than they have been in ten years.

— Wilson News: Mr. Wiley Weaver, who only yesterday was in apparent good health, was found dead in bed this (Wednesday) morning. ON COTTON.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The weekly statistical statement of the cotton movement, made up this evening by the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, discloses the following facts: Amount of cotton coming into sight for the week is 459,485 bales, against 471,982 the same week last year; a deficiency of 12,497 bales. The amount of cotton brought into sight thus far for the season is 2,303,034 bales, against 1,753,276 last year, an excess of 549,758 bales. This excess is entirely due to the heavy September movement, the in-sight movement during the month of October being 7,736 bales less than last year. The visible supply of American cotton to-night is 1,863,418 bales against 1,700,987 at the same time last year. The visible supply of American on September 1st, was 778,000 bales against 925,000 at the corresponding time in 1901. It is evident, therefore, that the world has taken out of sight 240,000 bales more during the fort y-seven days of the present season to date than during the corresponding time last last year, representing an increased absorption this year as compared with last of 36,000 bales per week, or at the rate of 1,875,000 bales per year.

Of the above visible supply there is in America this evening only 916,000 bales, against 938,000 bales last year.

The visible supply in America on September 1st, 1902, was 210,000 bales, against 374,000 bales on the corresponding day last year. It is evident, therefore, that there has been taken out of America during the forty-seven days of the current season to date, 408,000 bales more than was taken out during the same period last year. These figures indicate a consumption beyond all previous records.

My advices are that receipts have now reached their maximum. Only in two years out of the past ten has the movement failed to reach its maimum by the third week of October. Thereafter it has declined. In the two years in question—namely 1897 and 1898—the September movement was relatively small and the crop was late. All advices agree that this crop is an early one. If aftor next week the movement commences to show any substantial diminution those who have hitherto doubted the correctness of small crop estimates will be speedily converted and prices will rapidly advance.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, October 17.—The cotton market opened steady, with prices two points higher to one point lower, and following the call continued to work upward on increasing demand from shorts and moderate investment buying. The better feeling was due for the most part to an unexpected rise in Liverpool and to reports from Fall River that demand for yarns and cloths was active at firm prices. Whereas, the early weather chart noted generally fair conditions over the entire belt, the forecast foreshadowed unsettled weather over extensive portions of the crop country with lower temperatures in western Texas. The receipts were free for the day but the estimates for the movement of to-morrow fell below the actual receipts of same day a year ago. The private Liverpool cables brought buying orders and the South, too, attempted to cover shorts here. The week-end statistical statements as made up by Superintendent King, Secretary Hester and the Liverpool statistician were of bearish import, but had been quite generally discounted. The market continued to advance until mid-afternoon, when light profit taking by early buyers checked further improvement. The close was steady, net three to five points higher. Total sales were estimated at 175,000 bales. The reports from Southern spot markets were indicative of stability and good export demand. The crop estimates as a general thing ranged from 11,000,000 to 11,250,000 bales.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Cotton dull at 8.70c; net receipts 54 bales; gross receipts 54 bales; stock 40,379 bales.

Spot cotton closed dull; middling uplands 8.70c; middling gulf 8.95c; sales 1,031 bales.

HOMEMADE DRESSES.

HOW TO MAKE A NATTY DRIVING OR WALKING COAT.

Directions For Cutting the Garment Without the Aid of a Purchased Pattern—Back to Be All In One Piece.

[Copyright, 1902, by American Press Association.]

This coat can be buttoned in single breasted style or it can be made with a fly front. For the amateur dressmaker it would probably be easier to have buttons, as it requires great nicety to make the fly look just as it should. Pocket lids are set on for appearance only.

To cut this garment when no pattern is available, take a measure with a tapeline and a pencil and mark out the dimensions on a piece of rather stiff wrapping paper, beginning with the front. This is to be along the straight edge of the paper. The measure will be probably twenty inches from the throat to the bottom. Then measure three inches back from the front edges and extend the line to twenty-four inches in length from opposite the lower end of the first line. This line is even with the first at the bottom and four inches higher at the top. The top is sloped out, following the outline of crosses on the diagram, as it forms the neck. The length of the shoulder is measured and sloped to the figure, remembering that this particular coat has very square shoulders. The under arm seams can be readily understood and measured to reach the bottom of the coat without making any departure from the straight line of the bottom.

The back is cut in one piece, the center coming just to the fold in the cloth.

The notch cut out in the front edges is to turn in to form the necessary strengthening for the buttons and buttonholes. The pointed part turns over for the revers when the collar is on. The piece numbered 3 on the diagram is the facing for the fronts, and they also form the facing to the revers when the coat is finished.

FINISHED COAT.

Unless the coat is made with a fly front the notched piece along the front of the outside of the jacket is simply turned in and stitched with the lining or facing. Lining is used only for the wool fabrics. The seams to these are felled neatly, and the facing which forms the revers is the only doubled portion. The hems to the sleeves and the bottom of the washable coats are stitched several times around to give them solidity, and they do not require any stiffening beyond that.

The pattern has eleven pieces—viz, two fronts, one back, two facing and two collar pieces and two upper and two under sleeve pieces.

When the paper pattern is drafted, try it to the figure, and if it is right cut it along the chalk marks, being very careful that the nap runs down. The fronts are cut along the selvage and the back so that the fold comes directly in the center.

The facing is to be cut from the edge of the remaining piece, leaving the semicircular piece in the middle for the under part of the sleeves. The uppers, facing, etc., will come out of the remainder. Cut a piece of linen canvas an inch narrower than the facing. Catstitch it to the facing and baste it to the outside on the wrong side. Then sew it, turn it and baste it very firmly. After this sew up the under arm parts and shoulders and press the seams apart with a hot iron.

The lining is to be sewed up in the same way and basted around the armhole and closely around the bottom, after which the hem is turned up and basted to the whole, outside and lining. The neck is then closely basted and the collar sewed to the outside, first pressed flat, and then hemmed down neatly to the lining. The collar is really cut in four pieces, the centers being first sewed, and to the under ones is quilted a piece of the canvas.

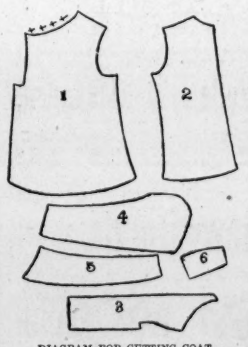

DIAGRAM FOR CUTTING COAT.

The outside is then put on and the whole stitched and felled down. When the collar is sewed fast, the all around stitching is to be done.

The sleeves are to have the outside seams sewed and pressed and the lining basted firmly along. The hem, with a small canvas along the bottom to steady it, is sewed and stitched to match and the inner seams sewed and pressed and the silken lining felled down and all pressed. A little canvas around the armhole gives a square shape. OLIVE HARPER.

What Pays?

The cows on many farms would be considered first class producers if each cow's product amounted to 200 pounds of butter per year, yet it is claimed by some of the best dairymen that 200 pounds of butter per year from a cow does not pay. Those who aim to make the most butter from their herds have the standard up to 300 pounds per year, and some fix the limit higher. Every farmer can have the individual members of his herd reach that amount by breeding for better cows every year.

CAN DO IT IF HE WILL TRY.

A young man writes us from Illinois, wanting to know whether it is possible for him to work his own way through one of our agricultural colleges. It is if he is made of the right sort of stuff, and it has to be pretty good stuff. Most of these colleges are so managed that all the work a student is able or willing to do upon the college farm is given him at a liberal rate of compensation. A young man should get together a fair outfit of clothes and not less than $100, however, before tackling this job, for he could hardly expect to do justice to his studies and spare more time for labor than would suffice to pay for his board and incidental expenses. Then if he should be sick his nest egg would come in handy. An education thus dug out by hard knocks, self denial and perseverance is always worth more to the boy than when absorbed at the expense of sighted drafts upon the governor at home. A course of study attempted on these lines means no luxuries, mighty little athletics, no girl business and quite likely celluloid collars and a ten dollar dress and Sunday suit. Moses put in forty years at this sort of work in the wilderness to fit him to lead his people, and any young man who wants to be somebody and do something can afford to play the Moses act for three years. The very best training for a young man is to want a whole lot of things real bad and not be able to get them. Then after awhile he will learn to want something worth having, will go for it and get it.

Nothing makes a prettier lawn decoration than a circular bed, say twelve feet in diameter, with a dozen cannas in the center and these banked with the different varieties of the coleus. A fringe of dwarf nasturtiums may be set on the extreme outer edge of the bed with good effect.

The potato crop of Colorado proved a regular bonanza to the producers the past year. The crop was large, as irrigation made the growers independent of drought, the quality was very superior and the prices out of sight. Hundreds of men made fortunes out of potatoes this year in that state.

MISS JULIA BRITTON

A Young Society Lady of Augusta, Georgia.

1515 Estes Street,
AUGUSTA, GA., May 16, 1902.

I TAKE pleasure in joining the large number of testators who have been cured through the use of Wine of Cardui. It is certainly a very remarkable curative agent, and while it is pleasant to take and mild in action it is very strong and positive in curative ability. Since early womanhood I suffered from extreme nervousness and seemed unusually sensitive to climatic changes. A slight cold or too great heat would upset me and headache and general indisposition would result. My stomach was easily upset and I would frequently have heartburn, sour stomach, and the heavy feeling you experience when you have indigestion. I was also irregular and had severe monthly pains, all of which showed me that I was entirely out of harmony with health. I naturally desired a change and doctored for several months, hoping for better health. I was however disappointed to find that the medicine afforded me no relief. I noticed your ad in the street car and I bought a bottle of Wine of Cardui on my way home and great was my joy to find that within a few days it brought me great relief. My food seemed to digest without trouble, and the headache soon disappeared altogether. I kept using it until I had taken five bottles and felt that I had never invested any money in my life which brought such great returns. Within two months I was like a changed woman. My aches and pains disappeared as if by magic and new life and activity seemed to course through my veins. I began to enjoy out door life, long walks and exercise as never before.

It is indeed gratifying to experience such a remarkable change in body and mind which perfect health brings, and believing that your medicine is well worthy of full confidence and endorsement I am glad to give it both.

Julia Britton

Young women cannot too carefully guard the monthly function. Women as a rule look upon this great function of nature as a trouble instead of a blessing. They seldom consider that it relieves the body of poisonous wastes and that a suppressed or a scanty flow is invariably a forerunner of sickness. Because Wine of Cardui perfectly regulates the monthly function hundreds of thousands of women owe their lives to it. Wine of Cardui as a regulator of the monthly function not only purifies the blood but it relieves weak and nervous women of troubles which doctors not only did not cure but do not often diagnose correctly. In thousands of cases of so-called "debility," "nervousness" and "tired, worn out feeling" Wine of Cardui by regulating the menstrual flow, has proven the remedy that was needed. If your doctor is doing you no good, secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui and take it in your home. It will cure you but you will only be one woman among thousands with the same experience. Remember Wine of Cardui cured Miss Britton. Accept no other medicine as a substitute. Give Wine of Cardui a fair trial and health will be yours.

There bids fair to be an unusual demand for good seed corn the coming season. Many sections of the corn belt had no corn last year fit for seed.

The bushel box for the marketing of apples is rapidly coming into favor. The box is easier to handle and in size much more nearly meets the wants of the average consumer.

Few men will take any chances in holding over any of the old corn crop, for the chances are that it will be more than ten years old before corn will be worth as much as it will during the first half of 1902.

A man will eat fried cat, thinking it rabbit meat, and never kick, and the people will eat oleomargarine when it is sold to them for butter and not kick, but when they know what they are eating then it gags them, and they let both tomcat and oleomargarine alone, and this is the whole of this oleo business.

It is always bad for a man to settle down discouraged and feeling that there is no use for him to try to get ahead in the world. The world's greatest victories have been won on the heels of its worst defeats. "I will" can overcome almost any misfortune. The world loves grit in a man and has no time for a whiner.

An important fact has been developed in the alfalfa regions of Kansas and Nebraska, and that is that the cheapest produced pork in the world can be made out of just alfalfa and nothing else, and if this were not enough the claim is still further made that such pork is the best flavored produced anywhere. Now, if these claims are true the hog raiser in the corn belt is going to have a run for his money.

THE GRAHAME-GOODWIN COMEDY CO.

Popular Repertoire Organization at the Academy of Music All Next Week

The sale of seats for the opening performance of the Grahame-Goodwin Comedy Company at the Academy Monday night will commence at Plummer's this morning. There will, no doubt, be quite a rush for seats, as this engagement will be the first popular-priced one of the season and, besides, every purchaser of a 30 cents ticket will be entitled to the privilege of a free admission for a lady.

The engagement of the company, which is considered one of the best on the road, will be for one week, with a change of play and specialties each night. Monday night the beautiful and popular drama, "In Indiana," will be presented. Of the company the Anniston, Ala., Evening Star says:

"The Grahame-Goodwin Comedy Company scored another success at the Noble Street Theatre last night when the pretty four act comedy drama "A Pair of Black Eyes" was presented.

"The entire company was shown to a good advantage in the play and each one preformed his or her part with marked percision, giving a finished and clever interpretation of the parts assigned. The popularity of the company was shown by the number of persons that greeted it, notwithstanding the fact that the weather was disagreeable. The promise of the manager to furnish new specialties was faithfully adhered to and many new and pleasing vaudeville acts were given."

A METROPOLITAN VERDICT.

Newspapers of New York Unanimous in Praise of Forepaugh & Sells' Circus

When the newspapers of New York city are unanimous in stating anything it may be regarded as absolutely true. Without a dissenting critic, they said of the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Enormous Shows United, when they gave their annual opening exhibitions at Madison Square Garden, that great as those shows had been in former years they certainly have surpassed themselves this year, and no circus exhibitions on the American continent had ever before equalled them or had been near enough equal to them to be mentioned in the same class. New York newspapers are always loyal to New York institutions, and as this great consolidation is the only circus that exhibits in the metropolis, and are the only ones in this country that ever have exhibited in New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and other Eastern cities, their enthusiasm over them is excusable, especially as the shows so certainly deserve the greatest possible praise. It is almost impossible to exaggerate statements as to their magnitude and merit, as will be shown to the circus critics living here by an exact duplicate of the New York performances when they exhibit here on Monday, Oct. 20th.

SHOCKING TRAGEDY ON WALL STREET.

Two Men Killed in a Lawyer's Office Over a Dispute on a Business Matter.

SLAYER COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Principals in the Tragedy Were Partners in a Bottling Company—One Was Accused by the Others of a Shortage in His Accounts

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, October 17.—Using a new automatic magazine pistol, Wm. C. Turner, former president and treasurer of the Climax Bottling Company, to-day shot and killed W. J. Mallard, secretary and treasurer of the company, and Robert Hamilton, its president, and then killed himself with the same weapon. A second revolver, loaded in every chamber, was found in Turner's pocket, and it is believed he planned to take more lives than he did.

The shooting was caused by a quarrel between the three men over an alleged shortage in Turner's accounts, for which he was threatened with criminal prosecution. The tragedy occurred in the offices of the law firm of Cantor, Adams & McIntyre, in the heart of the Wall street district during the busy noon hour.

Turner, who was 45 years of age and lived at Mount Vernon, a suburb of this city, was a cousin of Gov. Odell, of this State, and the head of the law firm in whose office the shooting occurred, is President Cantor, of the borough of Manhattan. Soon after the shots rang out in the office building, a wild rumor was started that the borough president had been killed.

The Principals.

All the principals in the tragedy were married. Mallard was 56 years old, a native of Atlanta, Ga., where he is well known in business and social circles. He was president of the Young Men's Democratic Club there. He had been in this city about four years and lived with his wife and two children in an uptown flat. Mr. Hamilton lived in Pittsburg, where he was president of the J. T. & A Hamilton glass factories. He was about 60 years old. He arrived in this city yesterday in response to a telegram from Turner, received at Pittsburg, which said: "Meet me in New York Friday and I will settle with you."

The three men met in the law office by appointment to allow Turner to make a partial settlement and he was asked for a certified check. "I have it," he said, and then he closed the door of the room. An instant later he drew a revolver and began firing. Mallard fell, shot through the heart, and Hamilton lived only a few moments. A number of other persons who were in the room, clerks and members of the firm, fled. After killing Hamilton and Mallard, in the head, and some moments later, hearing no more shots, the persons who fled ventured back into the room and found the three bodies, Turner retired as president of the Climax Bottling Co. last April, when he was bought out by Hamilton. After the sale there was a shortage of $5,100 in Turner's accounts. The Climax company engaged John F. McIntyre, the former assistant district attorney, and M. Goodman, both of the firm in whose office the shooting occurred to-day, to effect a settlement with Turner, and he engaged Edgar Leventritt to represent his interests. Some difficulty had been met with in the negotiations which followed between the lawyers, but it was finally agreed to accept $2,700, and give Turner a release in full. Last night it was agreed that the settlement should take place in the offices of Cantor, Adams & McIntyre to day at 11 o'clock. Before he left the conference last night Turner anxiously asked that Mr. McIntyre be present at to-day's meeting, and Mr. McIntyre has said since the shooting that he did not like Turner's manner yesterday, as the latter seemed in his opinion to bear himself recklessly and with the demeanor of a man who might do almost any desperate act.

Turner Shot Himself

The Conference.

At the appointed hour to-day Turner, with his lawyer, entered the law offices. Turner immediately after entering asked for Mr. McIntyre, and showed anger when told he would not be at the conference. Negotiations for a settlement began at once, Messrs. Hamilton, Mallard, Goodman and Adams being present beside Turner and his attorney.

The conference at first was in the firm's general office, but after Mallard asked to see Mr. Adams, and Mr. Hamilton in Adams' private office, Turner having refused certain propositions. While the conference was being held in the private office he walked in. His lawyer asked him for his check to be used in the settlement and Turner said:

"I'll Let You Have It."

Then Turner closed the door of the office. He was facing Mallard who had asked him for the certified check. An instant after he had shut the door he drew a revolver and pointing it at Mallard said: "I will kill you, you ——". Then he fired two shots at Mallard. Instantly there was a wild scramble on the part of others in the room. All except Hamilton dashed for the door and Hamilton, when Turner fired, sprang at him to grapple Turner and was too quick for him, however, dropping his weapon to a level with his victims breast, fired. There is no witness to what followed.

Mr. Leventritt, at the first appearance of the revolver, rushed out of the room, leaving his hat behind. Goodman followed Leventritt, and Adams jumped to his feet as soon as Mallard was shot, brushed past Turner and got out of the room.

As they left more shots were fired, followed by two heavy falls. There was consternation in the office. Clerks, boys and several women employes were for a few minutes too frightened to do anything. When persons connected with the law offices ventured back into the room they found the three bodies lying close together.

On Turner's body was found an unsigned telegram, reading: "Telephone message received. Will accept $2,700 either from Hamilton or Mallard." On Turner's corps the coroner also found a certified check for $2,700. The latter is regarded as throwing a special light on the case, for it is thought to indicate that Turner went to the offices with the probable intention of paying the sum of money which was to have settled the difficulty. If he did intend to pay, he changed his mind suddenly and decided to kill.

Quality is what makes price. If Burnett's Vanilla Extract was no better than other extracts its price would be the same. Once tried always used.

MINERS' CONVENTION TO MEET MONDAY.

Indications That It Will Last Two Days. Preparations to Begin Work as Soon as the Strike is Called Off

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WILKESBARRE, PA., October 17.—In accordance with the call issued yesterday, by order of the executive boards of the anthracite districts of the miners' union, all "locals" throughout the coal field began electing delegates to-day to the convention, which will be held here next Monday to consider the acceptance or rejection of the arbitration plan submitted by President Roosevelt. Most of the locals held their meetings to-night. It is practically certain that a majority of the delegates will come to the convention instructed to vote in favor of accepting the arbitration scheme. The prominent officials of the Union say there is no fear that the opposition will be strong enough to defeat the efforts of those who favor ending the strike by arbitration of their differences with the operators. President Mitchell will go into the convention and make a strong speech for the acceptance of the arbitration scheme.

The indications are the convention will last two days and there will be much debate on features of the arbitration plan. The principal question to be discussed before the plan is dropped by the miners will be that of taking care of all the men. The operators will not dismiss the non-union men in order to give employment to a returning striker. It is understood the union will take care of all such men who fail to find immediate employment. This will be done by drawing funds from the relief fund, which is said to be still growing.

The coal companies will do all in their power to meet the public demand for coal. Preparations for resuming as soon as the miners call the strike off are going on apace.

It is estimated that 25 per cent. of the collieries will be in operation on the first day after the suspension is over.

KENTUCKY RAILROAD LINES.

Formal Complaint to the Interstate Commerce Commission Against Consolidation of Certain Companies.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 17.—The State Railroad Commission to-night forwarded to the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington a formal complaint against the alleged consolidation of the Louisville and Nashville, Southern railway and other railroad lines in Kentucky.

Some days ago C. C. McChord, chairman of the State Railroad Commission, went to Washington and presented to the Interstate Commission certain facts in reference to the alleged consolidation of the various railroad lines. Mr. McChord said the members informed him that they could not proceed with the investigation until the State Railroad Commission could file a formal complaint in Washington. When this was done the national commission would at once enter into an investigation.

Mr. McChord, said: "Our information is that the interstate Commerce Commission will go to New York and will put J. P. Morgan and the others interested in the consolidation, on the witness stand, and will probe to the bottom all the deals set forth in the complaint which we have prepared."

Mr. McChord said that he and his assistants will rely on the interstate commerce laws in making a thorough investigation of the matter.

The complaint sets forth that in the alleged consolidation of the Southern lines all competition is destroyed, and that practically one man controls the fixing of freight and passenger rates on the lines extending from the Ohio river to the Gulf of Mexico, and from the Atlantic to the Mississippi. It further recites that the commerce of ten States is thus controlled by these carriers. Chairman McChord said: "The complaint has been prepared very carefully, and we have endeavored to present to the people of Kentucky and of the South, the situation as we see it."

AN EXECUTION IN TEXAS.

Jim Buchanan, Negro Murderer, Tried, Convicted, Sentenced and Hanged in One Day.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NACOGDOCHES, TEXAS, Oct. 17.—Jim Buchanan, colored, the murderer of the Hicks family, was tried here today. A plea of guilty was accepted by the judge and the negro was legally hanged within two hours after sentence had been passed.

Ten days ago the dead bodies of Farmer Hicks, his wife and daughter, were found in the Hicks house and Sheriff Spradley immediately began to search for the murderer. Buchanan was captured and confessed the crime.

Upon his arrival here the negro was immediately turned over to Sheriff Spradley, who told the people he would be given a speedy trial. The town began to fill up rapidly and the excitement was intense. The telegraph wires were cut the railroad tracks were torn up for a short distance, and it was announced that an attempt would be made to get possession of Buchanan.

District Court was at once convened, a jury was empannelled without delay, and the negro's plea of guilty was accepted by the court. The judge ordered that the death sentence be executed Nov. 17, but many declared that they would not allow delay. Buchanan then waived the thirty days allowed him by law, and preparations were begun to erect a crude scaffold in the jail yard. When the task was completed Buchanan was hanged by Sheriff Spradley in the presence of a large crowd.

MITCHELL'S REPLY TO THE PRESIDENT

Incidentally He Scores the Mine Operators for Their Refusal to Arbitrate.

DEFENDS THE MINERS' UNION.

Expresses Confidence That the Convention Will Agree to the Arbitration of the Men Chosen by President Roosevelt--Resume Work.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The response of John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, to President Roosevelt's notification that he had appointed a commission was made public to-day. It informs him of the action of the executive boards of districts 1, 7 and 9, in calling a convention and agreeing to recommend unanimously the resumption of work and submission of the difference between the "operators and the mine workers of the anthracite coal fields" to the commission. The reply expresses confidence that the convention will agree to the arbitration of the "eminent and impartial men," chosen by the President, and expresses gratitude to the President for his patriotic efforts to bring about an honorable settlement of the strike. The reply goes at length into the grievances of the miners and concludes with the expression of the hope and belief that from this arbitration will come complete, satisfactory and permanent solution of the troubles which have vexed the anthracite field for time immemorial.

The President, in his telegram to Mr. Mitchell, announced the appointment of the commission, and said: "It is a matter of vital concern to all our people and especially to those in our great cities who are least well off, that the mining of coal should be resumed without a day's unnecessary delay."

Mr. Mitchell's reply recounts the efforts of the miners' organization to secure arbitration and goes into a defence of the Union and its demands, saying: "If our proffer of arbitration or impartial investigation had been accepted six months ago instead of now, there need have been no strike. We have been so eager, Mr. President, to respond to the people's demand for coal that during the progress of the strike we have more than once offered arbitration, but we have invariably been met with the reply, "we will not permit outsiders to dictate to us in the management of our affairs; we have nothing to arbitrate."

"The poor under-paid mine workers of these coal regions, who toil hard from early morning until late at night for a livelihood, nobly supported by organized labor in this and other lands, have taught these corporation managers a useful lesson in civic and social duty. We exult over this tribute to the dignity of labor, because it is the triumph of right and of good public policy. We do not, however, exult over our opponents; we appeal to them now, as we have from the first, to turn their eyes to the future and to cooperate with us in an effort to establish better relations between employer and employe, for the advantage of both. We forgive them their arrogant refusal to deal with us at this hour, when they are forced to acknowledge their inability to operate their mines without our consent and co-operation. We hold out the right hand of friendship and ask them to join with us in securing amicable relations and wholesome conditions in this region. We forgive them even the false accusations which they have made against us.

"The pretence of the operators that they were unable to produce coal because intimidation kept from work men who were willing to work has been proven false by the fact that the protection which they demanded has decreased rather than increased the number of men mining coal.

"The operators declared that they would have nothing to do with the United Mine Workers of America, but they have found it necessary to recognize the power of the United Mine Workers of America through you, Mr. President, and to seek terms of peace which will enable them to resume their business of mining and selling coal. The recognition of our strength thus forced upon the operators by stern necessity, we exult over in any narrow spirit, but because we believe it marks a forward step toward a new era. Upon the fortifications laid through war we are ready to join with them in building for better conditions and a long and lasting peace.

"We have never made demands beyond the ability of the industry to pay on a basis of equitable division of profits between labor and capital.

"Upon our past record we are willing to stand or fall. We have, time and time again invited the anthracite operators to adopt true business methods end to deal with us on this basis. Despite repeated rebuffs we persisted, but they resented any attempt upon our part to organize their employes, and refused our overtures for amicable discussion and possible satisfactory adjustment of wage differences.

"We are glad to have a chance to appear before such a court empowered to consider and dispose of all questions at issue. First among these is the demand of the mine workers, for increased wages and a reduction of the hours of labor; second is the relations which ought to exist between the employers and the organization which the men have formed and which they authorize to speak for them.

SPECIAL OFFER

I have lately secured the agency for this city and vicinity of a preparation which is reliable and certain in clearing away troubles of the skin. Many forms of skin affections which have been considered incurable are conquered by this medicament as easily as a cough is stopped by the proper soothing and healing influences. This preparation is now in use among skin specialists, and many large hospitals have adopted it for eczema and kindred cases. It stands among the most useful medical agents now known.

I have evidence of its work to show which will interest any sufferer. Call and investigate same. Since I have been handling the remedy—known as D. D. D.—its work proves so effective I guarantee its efficacy. In all cases of skin affection I will refund the price of a bottle ($1) if the sufferer does not consider it literally a Godsend after trying. It is curing the worst kind of cases every day. It seems a pity any one should suffer the torture of skin troubles when so dependable a curative agent can be had so cheaply.

Time Proves All Things.

Benjamin Franklin said the sun stood still and the world moved around. No one believed it then; now every one believes it.

In time past I said I intended to make Wilmington's Big Racket Store go to the top. No one believed it then, and now, judging from the amount of business we are doing and the number of customers we handle, the people must believe we are on the right road.

The keystone to our success in the past has been in selling good values and honest goods and guaranteeing satisfaction at the lowest prices. Our large store looks like a bazaar. The piles and piles of goods that are strung up and stuck up and set up to show up is one of the evidences that we are in the race to stay. Plenty of new goods received every day by us, and the managers in each department vie with the others in trying to get the newest and prettiest goods in their stock. Our Shoe stock, which is managed by Mr. E. Z. Mitton, has received large shipments of new goods this week.

Ladies' nice stylish solid Leather Shoes, in button or lace, we are selling at $1 a pair. Men's oil grain Creole Standard, $1.25 value, we are selling for $1.

The world renowned Battle Axe Shoe—acknowledged by the school boys and girls and their fathers and mothers to be the best shoes sold are now on sale at the Racket Store, prices $1 to 2.50 a pair.

A big line of new boy's shoes, best styles; tip top goods, $1 to $2.50 a pair.

Wolfe Bros.' Spring heel shoes, none better every pair guaranteed by factory to give service and satisfaction, all leather 50 cents to $1 25 a pair.

Women's pebble domestic shoes, solid sole, at 90 cents and $1.

5,000 shoes to fill your memorandum with. A few pair of Greenwald's fine Ladies Shoes to sell yet, also plenty of Greenwald's children shoes left.

In Men and Boy's Clothing we claim to be the Champion Clothing House of the town; we sell standard goods at low prices.

We have 500 Boys suits with knee pants that run in prices 75 cents to $5.00. For $1.98, $2.25 and $2.50 you can get an elegant suit for a boy any size. Also a nice line of young men's suits, 17 years to 21 that are worth $2.50 to $7.50 a suit, and for men we defy competition. In their stock we have 3000 suits which fill in a floor space 25 feet by 120 feet and every table filled up.

We have suits for $1.98, good well made goods and from that up to $20.00.

I think I can fill your order and fit you up. We have a tailor that does our cutting and when a suit doesn't fit, we make a fit. We guarantee satisfaction.

Good all wool black suits at $5 a suit. Beautiful worsted suits for $7.50, $10 and $12.50. Extremely handsome suits for $15, $16.50, $18 and $20. You are the wearer and we are the seller. Come to see us and see if we can't trade.

In Ladies' Dress Goods — Well, this stock is a pleasure to talk about; with so many pretty things to show; the Dress Goods salesman takes pleasure in showing them.

A full line in pretty Fall Suitings, 54, 56 and 58, all wool and high grade, $1, regular price $1.50.

French Zebulines, in black only, at $1.39; 50 inches wide.

Basket weave Suttis Cloth, in black and blue, 50 inches wide, at $1. 54-inch reversible suiting, all wool; needs no lining; in several patterns; 50c, 69c, 75c, $1 and $1.39 per yard. A plenty of cheap grades.

A plenty of cheap goods. Pretty worsteds 10c and up. Rockingham Homespun, 5c; Sea Island Sheeting 5c yard; good yard wide Bleaching at 5c and up.

500 pairs Blankets of all kinds and almost anything you can call for at The Big Racket Store. As a rule the world helps those that try to help themselves. We need your assistance. Give us another lift and we will build another store.

Yours, for business,

GEO. O. GAYLORD, PROPRIETOR,
